SUMMARY

Dedicated enthusiast in the coding industry for many years, till I eventually transitioned to web development to pursue my passion. Recent graduate of Re:coder bootcamp, equipped with a strong foundation in Front-End web development and on the path to mastering Full-Stack development. Proficient in front-end with possessing expertise tools such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, NextJs, tailwind and other front-end tools. Moreover, my proficiency in backend technologies such as Node.js and expertise in NoSQL databases complement my frontend skills, ensuring a comprehensive approach to building robust web applications. I'm dedicated to staying current with evolving technologies, a fast learner with strong problem-solving abilities, and excel in effective communication and collaboration, making me a valuable asset to any team.
